Please note: every effort was made to record attendance, but some people may have come in later and not been captured on the list.

Minutes:

The Very Reverend Dr David Monteith, Dean of Canterbury Cathedral welcomed everyone.

Clare Millett, BID Board Chair and Chief Executive of The Westgate Community Trust and introduced the agenda and speakers for the evening.

Paul Turner, BID Finance Chair and Board Vice-Chair, and Chief Finance Officer at The Marlowe Theatre, presented a financial update covering the second term of the BID (2019 to date), and the Year 4 Accounts, which have been approved by the BID Directors, ratified at the AGM and filed at Companies House and published in full on the BID website.

Keynote presentations, followed by a Q&A, were given by:

- Julie Grail, Managing Director, The BIDs Business on “The Value of BIDs – Twenty Years On”.
- Lisa Carlson, BID Chief Executive on ‘Canterbury BID – The Next Five Years’

This was followed by a panel and Q&A, and networking.
